79th Independence Day Celebration

Jaipuria Institute of Management, Indore

On 15th August 2025, Jaipuria Institute of Management, Indore proudly celebrated the 79th Independence Day with great enthusiasm, patriotic fervour, and a strong sense of togetherness. The campus came alive as students, faculty, and staff gathered to honour the spirit of freedom and pay tribute to the sacrifices that built our nation.

The celebration began with an inspiring address by our Director Sir, whose words served as a reminder that independence is not only a privilege but also a responsibility. His message encouraged everyone to uphold values of integrity, unity, and service to society.

The cultural programme was a vibrant showcase of student talent. Patriotic dances filled the stage with energy, soulful songs stirred deep emotions, and faces painted in the tricolour reflected the pride of being Indian. The atmosphere brimmed with joy and heartfelt applause, while the distribution of sweets added a warm and festive note to the occasion.

The event also featured a prize distribution ceremony to recognise excellence across academics and co-curricular achievements:

- Student toppers of Trimester II and III were felicitated for their outstanding academic performance.
- Achievers of Beyond Classroom Points were honoured for their active participation and leadership in institute initiatives.
- Winners of the ResourceX Mini Magazine Challenge (Library Day activity) were recognised for their creativity and imagination.
- House Competition winners were celebrated for their consistent performance across inter-house events, showcasing teamwork and healthy competition.

The 79th Independence Day at Jaipuria was more than a celebration; it was a reminder of the unity, hard work, and shared values that continue to guide us forward as responsible citizens and future leaders.
