Ganesh Chaturthi Celebration

Jaipuria Institute of Management, Indore

On 27 August, 2025, the Cultural & Creativity Committee came alive with devotion and festive spirit as it welcomed Lord Ganesha for this year's Ganesh Chaturthi at Jaipuria Institute of Management, Indore. The grand arrival procession was a vibrant sight, with a beautifully decorated cart carrying Bappa, showered with flowers and gulal, accompanied by the lively beats of the dhol. Students, faculty, and staff all joined in with joy and enthusiasm, filling the campus with energy, togetherness, and reverence.

The Sthapna ceremony was conducted with deep devotion by our respected Director, Dr. Deepankar Chakrabarti, in the presence of faculty, staff, and students. The chants of “Ganpati Bappa Morya” echoed through the air, creating a divine aura that touched every heart. With folded hands and glowing smiles, the community embraced this sacred moment, marking the beginning of the celebrations in a truly spiritual way. Later in the evening, the Aarti was performed with great enthusiasm, where the glow of diyas, the sound of bells, and the collective voices singing in devotion created an atmosphere of peace and positivity, reminding everyone of Lord Ganesha’s presence and blessings.

The celebrations concluded with the distribution of prasad, spreading sweetness and joy among all. The day not only highlighted the cultural richness of the campus but also strengthened the bond of unity within the community. It was a celebration of faith, togetherness, and festive spirit-a reminder of Lord Ganesha's eternal blessings of wisdom, prosperity, and new beginnings.
