On September 29, 2025, Jaipuria Institute of Management, Indore, hosted Ramleela 2025, organised by the Cultural & Creativity Committee. The event, held in the presence of the entire Jaipuria Indore fraternity, including students at the campus auditorium, transformed the stage into one of divinity and devotion as the timeless tale of Lord Ram came alive. From the very first scene, the hall resonated with powerful dialogues, dazzling costumes, and expressions that beautifully captured the essence of tradition and storytelling.

The evening stood out because of the passion and dedication of the students. Their performances were not merely acts on stage but heartfelt portrayals that transported the audience into the epic world of the Ramayana. Each scene was layered with meaning, reminding everyone of timeless values such as courage, righteousness, and truth, while reflecting the creativity and sincerity of the performers.

The joy of the event was shared equally by the audience, where faculty and students came together to celebrate the occasion. Every clap, cheer, and moment of awe added to the festive atmosphere, while the resounding chants of “Jai Shree Ram” filled the auditorium with devotion and energy. This collective spirit of performers and spectators alike turned the evening into an experience that went beyond theatre, creating a true sense of unity and belonging.

Ultimately, Ramleela 2025 was not just a performance but a celebration of tradition carried forward with pride, talent nurtured with creativity, and togetherness that binds the Jaipuria community as one family. The evening left behind memories filled with cultural pride, spiritual warmth, and inspiration that will resonate for years to come.
