SAMIKSHA: Book Review Session

at

Jaipuria Institute of Management, Indore

The Book Review Session “Samiksha” was successfully conducted on 24th November 2025 at Jaipuria Institute of Management, Indore, focusing on the thought-provoking book “Poor Economics” by Abhijit Banerjee and Esther Duflo. The event was graced by distinguished faculty members, including Dr. Vinita Atre (Deputy Manager – Library), whose presence encouraged active participation and enriched the learning atmosphere.

The session began with Ms. Anshika Jain, who anchored the program with confidence and set an engaging tone for the audience. Following her introduction, Mr. Akansh Tamrakar and Mr. Ranjeet Shriwas presented a comprehensive overview of the book's key concepts, effectively connecting its themes to real-world economic challenges and practical examples. Their insights helped attendees grasp the deeper messages embedded within Poor Economics.

The discussion was further elevated by Dr. Gaurav Mathur (Library Chair), who delivered a thought-provoking address on the book's relevance in understanding global development issues and shaping effective policy decisions.

“The event concluded on a celebratory note with our Director, Dr. Deepankar Chakrabarti, felicitating the winners of the previous Readers of the Month for their outstanding contributions and consistent enthusiasm.”

Winners Felicitated:

- September 2025: Ms Soumya Agrawal
- October 2025: Mr Arun Kumar Ashok
- February 2025: Mr Vikhyat Patidar

This collaborative and insightful session reinforced the PMC’s commitment to fostering a culture of reading, analytical thinking, and shared learning, making Samiksha a memorable and enriching experience for all participants.
